

Who We Are

AktieGo sits at the intersection of financial media, investor awareness, and market narrative, helping public companies improve how they are discovered, discussed, and understood by the investment community.

Our platform publishes timely market coverage, company updates, sector insights, and analyst-driven perspectives designed for today's global retail and private investors.

Connecting Companies with Investors

Bridging the information gap between public companies and the investment community.

Insight-Driven Coverage

Delivering timely market insights and analyst perspectives.

What We Do

AktieGo helps public companies build consistent market presence through:

- Investor-focused editorial coverage
- Sector and company visibility across digital channels
- Distribution through newsletters, media-style content, and social platforms
- Paid and earned amplification aligned with capital markets audiences

We are not a publication. We operate as a market-facing media label built for discoverability and scale.

Our Platform

Dedicated company profile pages

Featured Stocks and Press Release

Regular Investor Newsletter Distribution

Market commentary, analysis, and thematic content

Integrated digital promotion (search and social)

AktieGo functions as both a content hub and a distribution engine for investor visibility.

Why AktieGo

Built specifically for public markets

Editorial-first, not hype-driven

Designed to scale visibility without sacrificing credibility

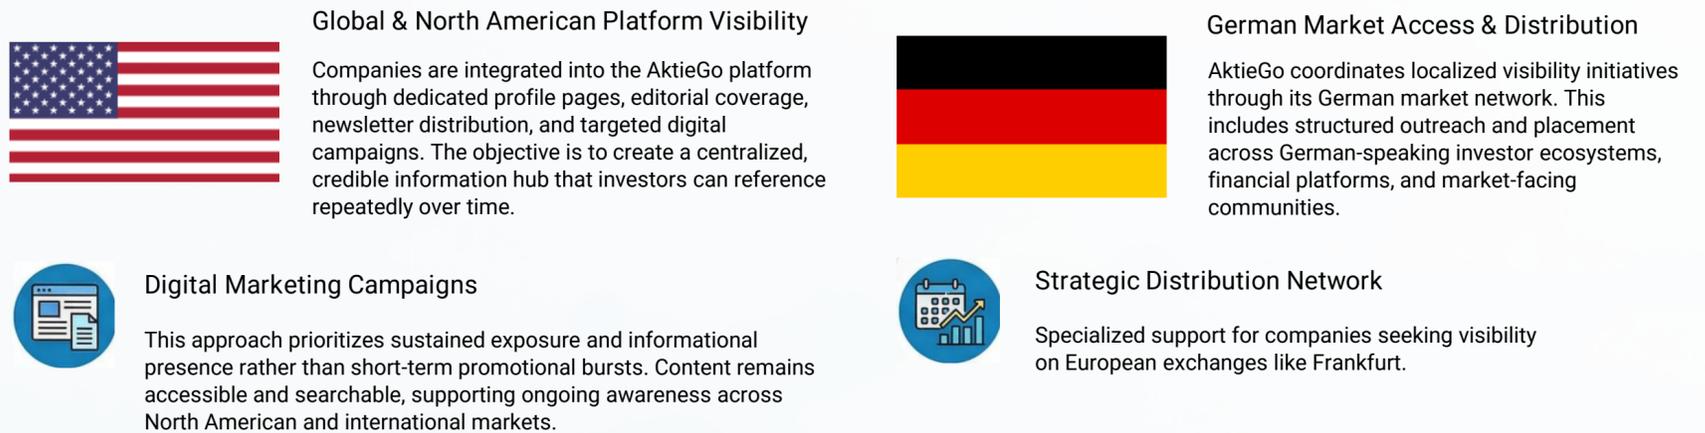

Aligned with how modern investors discover companies

AktieGo helps public companies stay visible where the market is already paying attention.
